

ALLEN ACADEMY

10 th Grade English Theme: Balance, Where do I stand? 2017-2018
Guiding Question 1:	Guiding Question 2:	Guiding Question 3:
How do I stay true to myself?	How do I react to mistakes/failures?	How do I take a stand and join the conversation?
Literature Lab:	Literature Lab:	Literature Lab:
Summer Reading Big brother is watching you! A Dystopian Lit Book Club Brave New World 1984 The Road Independent Reading	For you, a thousand times over: A Literature Book Club The Kite Runner Pride and Prejudice Julius Caesar Independent Reading	Selections from 50 Essays: A Portable Anthology (Provided) Explore the hidden side of everything: A nonfiction Book Club David and Goliath Outliers Fist, Stick, Knife, Gun Freakonomics Independent Reading
Writing Studio: Informational or Narrative	Writing Studio: Literature (Prose Fiction) Analysis	Writing Studio: Rhetorical (Nonfiction) Analysis
Process Piece: Research and annotated bibliography Choice of informative essay teaching research or narrative Dystopian short story inspired by research Scholastic Writing Contest	On-Demand Analysis Assessment: Literature Analysis Open-ended theme question	Process Piece: Rhetorical analysis of your choice of rhetoric
Additional Instructional Resources:
Word Within a Word by Michael Thompson: Word study using Latin and Greek Stems for cumulative quizzes		